Dear Mr. President:

Many thanks for your letter endorsing Mr. Leo Wanta for a sub-cabinet level position with the Department of Defense.

I had previously received Mr. Wanta's resume and I am pleased to tell you that he has been interviewed by my executive personnel staff as well as the Presidential personnel staff at the White House. You can be assured that Mr. Wanta is receiving every consideration as we seek the most qualified team to support President Reagan.

Thank you again for taking the time and trouble to write to me on this.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely,

Thank you very much for your letter and enclosures.

You have a broad, impressive background and I wish you every success in getting the position you want in the Executive Branch. We need more cost-cutters like yourself in government.

Per your request, I am enclosing a copy of our Survey's Final Report.

I hope you will write to your many friends in Congress and urge that our proposals be adopted.

With the help of concerned individuals like yourself, we can make a difference in bringing down the cost of government.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Wanta:

Thank you for your letter of June 2 concerning your desire for employment with the Reagan Administration.

I have forwarded your resume to the White House and am sure that your previous interview with Mr. Cavaney will be most helpful.

As I'm sure you can imagine, most of my energies in regard to finding employment within the Administration for various individuals has been directed to people from Maine.

Nevertheless, I was happy to bring your credentials to the appropriate people.

With best wishes, I am
