Re: OSC File No. MA-16-2217

Dear Mr. Lee:

This letter responds to your complaint to the Office of Special Counsel. You allege violations of the 5th amendment.

The Office of Special Counsel is authorized to investigate allegations of prohibited personnel practices and certain activities prohibited by civil service law, rule, or regulation. 5 U.S.C. §§ 1214(a)(1)(A), 1216(a) and 2302(b). The provisions of 5 U.S.C. § 2302 and 5 U.S.C. § 2105 establish that our authority extends only to current or former employees or applicants for employment to competitive or excepted service positions in Executive Branch departments and agencies of the federal government.

The information provided reflects that you are not a federal employee or an applicant for federal employment. Consequently, we lack jurisdiction over this matter as you are not a covered employee or applicant for a covered position in the Executive Branch departments and agencies of the federal government within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 2302 and 5 U.S.C. § 2105.

Accordingly, because this office does not have jurisdiction to investigate the matter you describe, we are closing this file. For further information, you may view our website at www.osc.gov.

Sincerely,

Colette K. Slaton

Civil Action No. 02-1363-A

MEMORANDUM OPINION

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Defendants the United States of America, et al.'s, motion to dismiss Plaintiff Ambassador Leo Wanta's claim of breach of contract based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction and on Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint. The issue before the Court is whether the Court should dismiss an alleged secret government agent's claim against the Attorney General, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Government based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Court grants Defendants' motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b) (1) because the Government has not waived sovereign immunity and public policy forbids the adjudication of a suit relating to matters of an alleged national security contract. The Court denies Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) because such an action would be futile.

Most Holy and Immaculate Virgin, Help of Christians, Mother of the Church, we place ourselves under your motherly protection. We promise to be faithful to our Christian vocation and to work for the greater glory of God and the salvation of our souls, and of those entrusted to us.

With faith in your intercession, we pray for the Church, for our family and friends, for youth, especially those in most need, and for all people.

You were St. John Bosco's teacher. Show us how to imitate his virtues, especially his union with God, his chastity, humility, and poverty, his love for work and for temperance, his goodness and total giving of self to others, his loyalty to the Holy Father and to the Church.

Grant, O Mary, Help of Christians, the graces of which we stand in need.

(Here mention your intentions.)

May we serve God with fidelity and generosity until death. Help us and our dear ones to attain the boundless joy of being forever with our Father in Heaven.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

St. Joseph, guardian of the Holy Family, watch over the chosen people of Jesus Christ.

Keep us, loving father, safe from all error and corruption. From your place in heaven, graciously protect us against the powers of darkness. As you rescued the Child Jesus from evil persons who wanted to kill him, so now defend God's holy church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity.

Extend to each one of us your continual protection, that led on by your example and strengthened by your aid, we may live and die in holiness, and obtain everlasting happiness in heaven.
Amen.
