RE: Your Criminal Matter
The Famous Payment Check

Dear Leo:

Attorney Steve Epstein called me about a week ago, apparently having had a conversation with you in which you related your recollection of a conversation I had with you earlier. You apparently recounted to Mr. Epstein your recollection of the issue of the tax payment and your contention that there had been a big conspiracy involving the federal government, the state government, your attorneys and the Judge to prevent you from presenting evidence of payment or accord in satisfaction in an effort to estop the state from proceeding.

I had expressed considerable amazement at the scenario that you outlined for me, but that of course assumes that that scenario is correct. Mr. Epstein indicates that the check appears a number of times in the file, so it obviously played some role in the case and I suspect that the issue of payment or estoppel was raised by your legal counsel at some point in some context. It's probably a losing proposition for a number of reasons, but I want to make it clear that I'm not being critical of either your trial counsel or Mr. Epstein who is now undertaking the difficult challenge of dealing with your sentencing. Having known you, Leo, for probably 14 years, I know you present many very challenging legal and factual issues in all of your legal matters.

Good luck!

Sincerely,

BACHMAN, CUMMINGS, McKENZIE,

Dear Mr. Wanta,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

Sincerely yours,

Yitzhak Rabin

Stuck in the Promised Land

Israel: With unrest rising, many settlers want out

NOT EVERYONE IN THE militant Jewish settlement of Kiryat Arba thinks it's the promised land. "We went because of the money; it was cheap to get an apartment there," says Sarah Malul, who moved to Kiryat Arba 10 years ago. Malul and her husband, Avi, raising four children in a fearful place surrounded by enraged Palestinians, often thought of moving to Jerusalem. But they couldn't afford to. Then Baruch Goldstein, a Kiryat Arba resident, gunned down 29 Muslim worshipers in nearby Hebron, and everything changed. "My 8-year-old said to me, 'I'm afraid the Arabs will kill me now,'" recalls Sarah. The Maluls demanded government help—and with a $275 monthly subsidy, they were able to rent a tiny apartment in Jerusalem. "I feel like a prisoner who has been freed," says Sarah.

Thousands of Jews living in other settlements deep in the Israeli-occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip want to get out, too. But it's not so easy. They were lured there by government offers of huge mortgages at rock-bottom rates, at a time when Israel's leaders wanted Jews to populate Arab lands captured in 1967. The settlers bought homes they could never afford in Israel proper. Yet now that Israel is preparing to trade land for peace, the same houses have plunged in value. "Many families want to leave," says Malul, who can't find a buyer for her apartment in Kiryat Arba. "But they don't have the money to make that choice."

The trick is to survive Palestinian stones, bullets and bombs until the government of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin offers compensation, then take the money and run. Settlers recall the precedent set at Yamit, the Sinai settlement returned to Egypt as part of the 1979 peace treaty. Then the government paid $300,000 for each evacuated farm, and $75,000 to $150,000 for other households that pulled up stakes. So far, however, Rabin has resisted pressure to offer a deal to the settlers in the West Bank and Gaza. "He doesn't want them to leave now because he's still negotiating," says Hagai Meiron, one of two Labor Party legislators running a hot line for settlers who want out. "Rabin says to himself: 'If they move now, the

Climate of fear: Israeli soldier clubs a Palestinian protester

Palestinians will think we are weak." That approach has left many settlers feeling like pawns in an increasingly dangerous game. Just last week the Islamic militant group Hamas issued a warning to Jews living in certain West Bank and Gaza settlements: leave by March 15 or face increased attacks. The threat is not empty bluster. In February Hamas gunmen shot dead a pregnant woman who was traveling between Tel Aviv and the suburban-style settlement of Ariel. More recently, nervous Israeli soldiers killed an Ariel resident who was driving at night—they thought the settler was a Palestinian terrorist.

So far the government is providing only minimal assistance to help relocate low-income families desperate to get out. Estimates for the cost of fully compensating most of the 125,000 settlers range up to $10 billion. "Somebody will have to pay for it," says Meiron, who suggests that Saudi Arabia could help if settlements were used to house Palestinians in the future. Washington is another likely candidate. Israel got a pledge in 1992 for $10 billion in U.S. loan guarantees to help absorb Jewish immigrants. Rabin hasn't asked to use the money for relocating settlers, but a U.S. official in Jerusalem says Washington "would be willing to examine such a proposal if it was raised."

But where will the settlers go? Avi and Sarah Malul moved from Kiryat Arba to an affordable apartment in Pisgat Ze'ev—a Jewish neighborhood built after 1967 in occupied East Jerusalem. Negotiations over the fate of Jerusalem aren't due to start for another two years or more. Meantime, bulldozers are hard at work in Pisgat Ze'ev, a burgeoning neighborhood of 30,000 Jews, clearing land for even more low-cost apartments. Until a final peace settlement is reached, nobody knows for certain where they can make a home, and who will pay the price.

JEFFREY BARTHOLET in the West Bank

Rabin's Coalition: Where's the Beef?

THE MIDEAST PEACE PROCESS CLAIMED another casualty last week: nonkosher meat. Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, trying to pursue a controversial peace policy with only a minority coalition in the Knesset, needed to entice the ultraorthodox Shas bloc back into his ruling group. But Shas had a price for its support: legislation that would outlaw the import of nonkosher meat. (Most Israelis don't care about the meat itself; the issue is part of the always heated struggle over how secular Israel should be.)

Rabin wanted to reinforce his Labor-led coalition ahead of his visit this week to Washington. The new meat bill is expected to become law this week—despite opposition by some leftists who found it unpalatable. The Shas bloc will probably rejoin Rabin's government. That means the peace process, at least, may stay on the menu. ■

MEMORANDUM OPINION

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Defendants the United States of America, et al.'s, motion to dismiss Plaintiff Ambassador Leo Wanta's claim of breach of contract based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction and on Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint. The issue before the Court is whether the Court should dismiss an alleged secret government agent's claim against the Attorney General, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Government based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Court grants Defendants' motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1) because the Government has not waived sovereign immunity and public policy forbids the adjudication of a suit relating to matters of an alleged national security contract. The Court denies Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) because such an action would be futile.

C.A. No. 84-C-359

The matter under consideration began when Leo E. Wanta designating himself as "stipulated petitioner for Falls Vending Service, Inc.," filed various motions challenging actions taken by the United States Bankruptcy Court for this district in a case entitled In Re: Falls Vending Service, Inc., Debtor (Case No. 83-02385). Wanta's motions are resisted by the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Menomonee Falls, a secured creditor in the bankruptcy action. Magistrate Robert L. Bittner, after a thorough examination of the matter, has recommended dismissing the action because Wanta lacks standing and also has failed to properly invoke this court's jurisdiction. I concur in the magistrate's analysis and adopt his recommendation in full.

In his written objections, Wanta contends that the magistrate's analysis of his standing is faulty because Falls Vending Service is not a legal and valid corporation, and therefore, cases holding that a corporation can only be represented by licensed counsel do not apply to this matter. Even if Falls Vending Service is not a corporation, [Wanta lacks standing because his affidavit testimony indicates he is only an employee of the company.] The owner of a company cannot confer standing on a non-lawyer employee by stipulation or otherwise.

Wanta's objections do not address his failure to properly invoke this court's jurisdiction. No complaint has been filed. Wanta failed to follow the proper procedures to perfect an appeal pursuant to Part 8, Rule 8001 et seq. of the United States Bankruptcy Rules. The matter must be dismissed sua sponte for lack of jurisdiction.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED that the action is hereby dismissed.
